

John Hutton
BSc Econ, Bphil

John Hutton, BSc Econ, BPhil, is a Senior Research Leader in the London office of the MEDTAP Institute, a member of the UBC group of companies; (formerly MEDTAP International Inc).

He joined MEDTAP International in 1992 after 12 years at the Centre for Health Economics at the University of York. His present work focuses on the economic evaluation of pharmaceuticals and other medical products. He has acted as a consultant to many companies and government agencies, including NICE, on the use of cost-effectiveness data in reimbursement decision-making. He became a founding co-editor of Health Economics in 1991. Mr Hutton is a graduate of the London School of Economics, and the University of York, where he holds a Visiting Professorship in Health Sciences. He was recently appointed as a Non-executive director of York Hospitals NHS Trust.