

Christian Siebert
Acting Head of Unit
DG Enterprise and Industry, European Commission

Christian Siebert is Acting Head of Unit in the European Commission, Enterprise and Industry Directorate-General, Unit “Competitiveness in the Pharmaceutical Industry and Biotechnology”. The activity of the unit includes the follow-up to the “G10 Medicines” group’s policy recommendations on access of patients to medicines and on improved conditions for innovation in the European pharmaceuticals industry. The unit also contributes to the development/implementation of the European Commissions’ policy document and action plan “Life Sciences and Biotechnology – a Strategy for Europe”.

He joined the European Commission in 1991 and held previous positions in the Enterprise/Industry Department, lastly as Assistant to the Director-General, and before, dealing with the food industry, co-operation with Central/Eastern Europe and with GATT/WTO matters.

A native of Germany (born 1957), he graduated (M.A.) in Political Science and Economics at the University of Mainz (Germany), before completing post-graduate studies at the College of Europe (Bruges, Belgium).