

Dr Christina Fabian
President
European Union of General Practitioners

Dr Christina Fabian has been a General Practitioner since 1971. Since 1974 she is the head of the health centre of Heby, Sweden. Dr Fabian was the President of the Swedish Association of General Practitioners 1992-96 and Vice President of the Swedish Medical Association 1995-98. She has participated in Commissions of Inquiry on palliative care and on health insurance.

In 2002 Dr Fabian became the president of the European Union of General Practitioners, UEMO