Charlotte Cederschiöld, MEP

General

Born on 28 September 1944, Gävle, Sweden. Swedish MEP, Moderata samlingspartiet and The Group of the European People's Party (Christian Democrats) and European Democrats. Fil. Kand (BA) in political science, law and economic history (1970) at the University of Stockholm

European Parliament

- Vice-president
- Chairman of the Conciliation Committee
- Chairman of the interinstitutional committee on public access to documents
- Member of the interinstitutional group on information
- Bureau member
- Member of The Committee on Citizens' Freedoms and Rights, Justice and Home Affairs
- Substitute to The Committee on Legal Affairs and the Internal Market
- Member of The Delegation for relations with the United States
- Member of the Convention for Fundamental Rights (2000)

Rapporteur on the following reports: Attacks against information systems and communication networks, protection against counterfeiting the Euro, fight against drugs, organised crime, police co-operation in relation to synthetic drugs, intellectual property (The WIPO Treaties) and the development of the third pillar during the Intergovernmental Conference 1996-97 (monitor report).

Focal points: Enhance the individual's rights, increase the openess in the decison-making procedures, promote a better climate for prosperity of the EU.

Previous positions

- First Vice-Chairman of the European Union of Women (1993-1999).
- Member of the Riksdag (1988-1995); former member of the Trade and Industry, Labour Market and Civil-Law Legislation Committees.
- Member of the Moderate Party executive (1990-1995).
- Member of Stockholm county council (1979-1988); member of the the board and vice chairman for the committee for culture (1985-1988).
- Policy adviser, National Federation of Private Enterprise (1972-1988).
- Information manager, Swedish Institute and City of Stockholm Development and Promotion Office.

Publication

EU Sveriges möjlighet - Vägen till inflytande (EU- possibility for Sweden - how to gain influence).